Cur State Election.

The only returns received, since our table on Monday was published, are, Richland County, 100 for Randell; Wood, 50 for Hobart; Green, 678 for Randall, instead of 550; and Juneau, 150 for Randall. The Melison Journal of Monday, thinks that the Republican majority in the State will be fully 4,000. No doubt the average will reach that figure; though some of the candidates may not have over 3,000. As to the Legislature, the Journal thus classifies it:

S-nate-17 Republicans, 13 Democrats. Assembly-55 Republicans, 35 Democrats. 7 districts to hear from, which will mostly elect Democrats.

ply of the Veteran of The Evening Journal,

We can only give such returns as have reached us, with the remark that they are very favorable to the Republicans, and indicate the election of the whole Republican State Ticket. It is not impossible, however, that the Democrats who are on the Ulica State Ticket, or a portion of them, may be elected."

From the Albuny Evening Journal.

"Nothing betrays so vividly the poverty and help-lessiess of Shan Democracy as this arowed depend-erne upon utra Know Nothing votes. The once proud and accompromising Democracy is now to humble as to meetly say—"It is not impossible that the Demo-crats on the Utica Ticket, or a portion of them, may be elected."

THE JEWS IN AMERICA.—From the report of a lecture recently delivered by Dr. Morris J. Franklin, in Providence, R. I., we gather some facts in relation to Jews in the United States. The Jews in this country, the speaker said, now number about two hundred thousand. In New York alone there are forty thousand. The attention of the Jews in Europe is turned towards America. rope is turned towards America, on account of the p-resention to which they are subjected in some countries on the continent, and a rapid increase of their numbers here may be expected by immigration. Many Jews in this country are occupying prominent and influential positions in politics and business. Messrs. Yulee and Benjamin, of the U.S. Senate, and Messrs. Zollicoffer. Oliver, Phillips and Hart, of the National House of Representatives, are numbered among the children of Abraham. instead of reading the Scriptures in the Hebrew tongue, understood enly as the Rabbi interprets it, many now use the English version. This class have introduced many reforms into their mode of worship—they now have their choice, their organs, and their Sabhave their choirs, their organs, and their Sab-bath Schools. The Hebrew Christians, the converted Jews, in this country, number three or four hundred, and of this number nearly one hundred are sugaged in preaching the Gospel of Christianity, or in a course or study preparatory to doing so.

EXCUSE FOR KNOW NOTHINGISM .- The Washington Crastitution—the organ of the President and the pro-Slavery party—is edited by a man named Brown, an English-man, who has been at least five years in the country, and is probably naturalized. It suits him to tell the people of the North day after day that their support of the Black Republican ticket is only another form of treason, and that the consummation of 'Black' Republican designs will be the signal for the dissolution of the Union! We would not deprive Mr. Brown of the right of voting if he has got his last papers, nor would we deny him the privilege of earning his bread and meat by paid slandering of the great majority of Northern men; but it would be a consolation if there were a chapter in the Statutes-at-large by virtue of which Mr. Brown could be legally and soundly birched every Saturday in reward for his week's impudence and falsehood.—Chicago Press and Tribune. ason, and that the consumnation of scribed for by our readers, we would call atbinding are unequalled. Give us a call. Advertising Medianis

We have upon our table the first number of publication in newspaper shape, entitled the Milwaukee Wholesale Reporter and Prices Current. This sheet purports, with singular boldness, to be an unequalled advertising medium-to have an incredible circulation in advance, and to be devoted to the interests of Merchants and Manufacturers, with a singleness of purpose that will elicit the admiration of any one not familiar with the destiny marked out already for this preceedous enterprise. We have no faith in the Reporter; notwithstanding its clean face and unexceptionable dress, it inherits a hereditary and fatal disease, and will follow in the mortuary footsteps of its illustrious predecessors. We cannot believe that our Merchants will hail the advent of the Reporter with all the enthusiasm it's editors would have us believe, because our Merchants and Business Men not only have too keen an eye to the most

An advertisement to be of any value, presupposes some other requisites besides being printed. It must be deposited on a current which will carry it where it would not go by any prop-lling force of its own. This is the case in the daily newspaper. The electric current of intelligence which comes over the wires, does not stop at the telegraph office, it flows into the daily paper and ramifies throughout the country into every family, bearing with it the voice of the merchant and the tradesman.

But what motive power will circulate the mere bundle of business announcements, whose uniformity wearies us, and whose verbosity is abominable! There may be thirty THE KNOW NOTHING AND DEMOGRATIC thousand Reporters printed every month, we | call at the SENTINEL JOB ROOMS and leave | see COALITION IN NEW YORK.-How effective do not question that questionable waste of their orders. and how characteristic is the following re- paper; but who reads them? The Reporter, we understand, is to be published semi-monthly: we also understand the | cutod, will not fail to GIVE US A CALL! price is one dollar a year, to be paid whenever convenient. The terms ought to runder it popular if anything will.

To offset the flaming announcements which accompany the birth of this new sheet, are the very general opinions of its early death; the profound recollection of the similar sheets that went before, and the indubitable evidence that its life will never profit any one

From the Lowisville Journal.

If it is true, as charged by the Administration organ, that Seward, Chase, Hale, Giddings, No., have, by their complicity in the Harper's Ferry rebellion, made themselves guilty of High Treason against the United States, and deserve to hang with old Brown, why, in the name of public duty, does not the President have them arrested and tried for the orime? If Seward Chase, Hale, Giddings, Gerritt Smith, and others, are accessories of Old Brown's crimes, they must be arrested and tried for murder and high treason! The dignity of Government requires it. The oath of office taken by Mr. Buchanan compels it. The conservation of society calls for it. The safaty of the South demands it. How can Mr. Buchanan escape the dilemma? Johnson, from San Francisco to Hong Kong, having on board 181 passengers, of whom 175 were Chinese, was burned at sea on the 15th S.pt. All the passengers, with the exception of one Chinaman, who was smothered, were saf-ly taken off by the Achilles, and conveyed to Honolulu. Among the passengers were R. H. Dana, of Boston, C. C. Harris, Geo. Clifford, H. C. Richmend, Mr. Schonbron. The Chinese are said to have lest a large amount of treasure. The cargo, of about 500 tons, was all lost.

The five originated between decks from some Chinaman smoking optum allowing sparks to get among their combastible atticles, who soon set the whole ship in a blaze. The escape of passengers was owing to the daring and coolness of Capt. Johnson and his officers, and the fortunate appearance of the Achilles. The Mastiff was a Boston first class clipper, valued at $500,000, and insured for $80,000 in Boston. The Court at Honolulu awarded Capt. Hart $7,500 salvage on specie recovered—the belance was shipped on the Ella and Liza, which was to sail for Hong Kong on the 27th Oct., with 100 of the Chinese passengers.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 16, 1959 PROCLAMATION—THANKSGIVING.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its varied experiences and vicissitudes, has nealy gone, the seed time and harvest have passed away, and the products of the earth more have passed away, and the products of the earth more have passed away, and the products of the earth more have been gathered in. Our State has been favored by an overriding Providence with exemption from jestinence or any provailing disease, and the commercial and financial distress, ander which our land has so long suffered, seems to from evil disturbances, and men have gone about their daily avocations in peace and quietness. As a stion, too, we have been exempted from the scene or broad which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending hosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the tribute of our thanks to the Author of all good, for the exhibitation and treatment and continuance of our free institutions, for the general health and prosperity of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free education, and freedom to worship god according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings, finarviously and some propules. PROCLAMATION-THANKSGIVING.

ered upon us.

Therefore, in accordance with the time-honored usage, I do hereby recommend to the people of Wisconsin that they observe THURSDAY THE 24th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of THANKSGIVING, and that, abstaining from their secural resolutions on that day, they under their several localities in grateful praise to Akukhty God, for his constant care and sebundant merities.

praise to Atmirry God, it have hereunto subscribed abundant mercies.

In teatimony ackereof, I have hereunto subscribed L. S. any name and canaed the Great Scal of the Scate to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 25th day of October, in the year of our Lord or Change of the Act of the Governor,

Republican Victories of 1859. The following are the Republican majoritics of the present year. The electoral votes that they give would elect the next President of the United States. No general elections have been held this year either in Illinois or Indiana. Had it been otherwise they would, we think, both have shown undoubted

Republican majorities: MAINE, 12,000 NEW HAMPSHIRE, 3,524 VERMONT, 16,000 RHOUE ISLAND 3,904 CONNECTICUT, 1,500 PENNSYLVANIA, 17,000 OHIO,.....15,000 MINNESOTA, 3,500 MASSACHUSETTS, 20,000 NEW YORK, 8,000 NEW JERSEY,..... 1,600

A FAITHFUL DEMOCRAT.-A day or two since, we heard a subordinate Government officer, an ardent Democrat of course, express the hope that Old Brown and his confeder ates might be hung in public, for he declared his intention of going to Charlestown expressly to "see them swing," and he would not miss the sight for any consideration .-The knot of admiring Democrats around him manifested their approbation of his patriotism by a sort of fiendish chuckle.

We have no excuse to offer for the unlaw ful and erazy conduct of Old Bnown, but when the Charleston Grand Jury refused to indict a party of men who had committed a erime which the laws of the U.S. declare to be piracy-we allude to the slave trade-and of whose guilt there was not a shadow of doubt, the foul-hearted man who gave expression to these barbarous sentiments, or any press or member of his party, had no words of condemnation for this outrage against civilization and the laws of the country. Such is modern Democracy.

EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN.—A writer in the Worcester Spy gays that according to the census of the United Kingdom, taken in 1957, next to agriculture, strangely enough, the fishing interest stands as the largest employee of women. In the pilchard fishery there are some thousands. The Jersey oyster fishery alone employs one thousand. Then follows the herring, cod, whale and lobster fisheries. From this class came GRACE DARLING .--There are 200,000 female, servants and 500 .-000 business women. One item in the latter list was 26,000 butcher-wives, women who do not merely preside over the business, but buy stock, put down meat, and drive a cart,

The anxiety with which the public have waited for the bulletins of his progress under the hands of his physicians, is evidence sufficient of the great interest felt in him by men of all parties. We trust to-day to hear intelligence of a more favorable character.

Although Mr. Gelbert is supposed to be the principal capitalist of the enterprise, soveral other smart operators have a financial finger in it—among them Benjamin and Henry Wood, brothers of Fernando. ORDINATION.—The Rev. Ephraim M. Epstein, a converted Jew, was ordained on Thursday by the Presbytery of Kingston, Canada West, a missionary to his countrymen in Turkey. His destination is Monastir, in Macedonia, to which place he will proceed with his family at the end of the gnouth. Mr. Preshmau, the converted Rabbi of Quebee, was present on the occasion.

Should this astonishing undertaking succeed, it will be more than anybody outside of those engaged in the wild scheme, expects.

The New Congress. From the New York Tribune, Nov. 12. We present herewith a perfect-we believe the first perfect-list of Members chosen to the next Congress, which will assemble at the Capitol at Washington on Monday, Dec. 5, at noon. The House is entirely full, two vacancies which were created by the death of the Members first chosen having been filled by special elections. There are several vacancies in the Senate caused by death and failure to elect, all which will doubtless be filled at an early day. The doubts which still hang over the organization of the House will cause the list of its Members to be widely scrutinized with in-

Arrival of Anomer Captured States.

The American bark Endly, alleged to be engaged in the Slave Trade, arrived at this port yesterday, having been captured on the Coast of Africa, by the U. S. sloop-of-war Portsmouth. On reaching this city, Lieut. Stephens, who brought home the prize, repaired at once to the office to the U. S. Marshal, and laid the facts of the case before him, and subsequently reported the circumstances to the Secretary of the Navy, whose orders he awaits, relative to the final disposition of the vessel. not to invest or can to on Western property; but that is wearing a vary very ripidity. A much better feeling now exists towards the West than there did six months ago, and I have no doubt in my own mind that in six months or tweire meanths we shall see a creat reaction in all operations in our city, and cell
a treaction in all operations in our city, and cell a treater one in wall manage to pay up from the life to compare with it, or that I would be will ling to exchange it for, and I am satisfed in my own mind that we cill go aneed and grow more rapidly the next five years, thankwe have for the last ten years. I am layself, partectly contenated with Milwau es. Let us all cheer up. Milwaukee is too important a point to be overlooked. In conclusion, I would say, am now ready to ultimate on the Auction

THE PIRATE

Alling success in millions of cases.

We be listed to be that and surest remedy in the morely, in all cases of Dysentery and Distribute in Says a correspondent of the New York Chrona in thidren, whether it arise from teething or from any of the reass.

I send you the following true narrative, says a correspondent of the New York Chrona it. (c., as a little incident showing, among a thousand such, the power of true religion, and the friends of the Peace Society will see in it a confirmation of their doctrine. The narrative is given by the captain:

narrative is given by the captain:

Twenty-seven years ago the ship I commanded was on a mission of mercy. Laden by the generous contribution of a New England city, she was bound to the Cape de Verds with bread for the famine stricken and It was the fourteenth day out, in the first gray of the morning, that the mate aroused me with the startling intelligence that a sus-picious vessel was in sight. With the first ray of light the vigilant officer had desoried her, and she was so near as to be made out with a glass. I was on deck in an instant. The first glance at the stranger almost dispelled the fear that the mate's alarm had occasioned.

"Why, Mr. Larkin," I said, laughing as I spoke, "there's nothing suspicious in that lubberly-looking craft. She is a Portuguese brigantine; she can't sail."

"She looks like that build," the mate an-swered, "but look now at the men on her

One glance at the telescope was enough to satisfy me the mate was right.
"It's no honest crait, Mr. Larkin," I said: "It's no honest craft, Mr. Larkin," I said:
"but she may not be a pirate for all that...
One need not be surprised to fall in with a slaver hereabout."
"She's no slaver, captain."
"Why do you think so?"

'Because there are guns on her deck, in-stead of water-casks.' As if to put an end to our speculations, the As it to put an end to our speculations, the suspicious ressel began to spread more camvass, and as they gathered away the freshming breeze, they ran up to her foremast a flag which, when it reached the track, unshook its folds in the wind. On the white field we saw the terrible insignia of the free-booter, the death's head and cross-bones, painted in diabolical black.

painted in diabolical black.

We made all the sail we could, but escape was impossible. A gun from the pirate, and a ball whistling over us, speedily brought us to. The pirate came quietly along, like a panther, which, sure of its prey, was in no great hurry to seize it. The moment he came within speaking distance he hailed and ordered me to launch a boat and come on board. We got out the quarter-boat, and I was about to jump into her, to pay my respects in person to the villaius, when Mr. Larkin asked leave to go.

"If they want the captain," said he, "let them send for him. Fill see if the mate won't answer as well." painted in diabolical black.

answer as well.

He descended to the boat, which began to pull back. Almost at the same instant a pull oack. Amnost at the same instant a launch was swung over the rail, into which twenty savage-looking rascals, armed to the teeth, sprung and pulled towards us. Ten minutes afterward they were on board of my and a beauty away the region. vessel and began clearing away the main hatch.

The leader, a swarthy fellow, whose square HAVING ADDED TO MY EXTENSIVE compact frame, and whose eyes, black and facturers the complete stock of L. S. BARNUM, who hazy, half concealed by the lids, expressed cruelty are the property property of the control of cruelty and cunning, approached the cabin hatch, where I stood, and addressed me in

"Yes," I replied.

very fair English:
"Are you the captain of this vessel?"

"What's your cargo?"
"Flour."
"Where from?"

"Where to?"

"Cape do Verds."
"Why, they're all starving there," he said, opening his eyes and looking full at me.
"Yes, and the flour in my vessel was freely given by good Christians to feed those starving people."

The rascal continued his deliberate gaze a moment, then turned toward his men, who by this time had broken into the main hatch, and in a rough, commanding tone, spoke a few words in Spanish which I could not make out. The men fooked up with astonishment, and then withdrew to the side, where they stood gazing cautiously toward their captain, for such was my interrogator. He thrust his hand behind him, and walked to and fro quickly for five minutes; then he said sharp-You Americans are all heretics! Why should you send flour to feed Roman Catho-should you send nour to reed nothing controllies?"

"Because they are fillow-men, and their Saviour is our Saviour," I answered, astonished at the conduct of the man.

"If you lie to me," he cried, with a flereness that startled me, "if you lie to me, I'll nail you to your deck! Is this cargo the free gift of your countrymen to the starving?"

"I'll prove it to you by my papers," I answered. "I don't want to see your papers. Swear by the Saviour whose name you have just pronounced!" As he spoke he crossed himself devoutly.

"I swear it by the Holy Trinity!" I replied, solemnly.

The pirate litted his cap and bent his head devoutly when I mentioned the Trinity. He devotity when I mentioned the Trinity. He stood still with his head bent over while one might have moderately counted fifty. When he raised himself up, it seemed to me there was less ferocity in his countenance. His eyes were no longer half closed, but open and clearer in their depths. I looked steadily at him.

THE GALE OF LAKE ERIC-GREAT DESIRECTION OF Priormety.—The Badulo Express of yesterday morn-ing brings as particulars of the recent terrible gale on Lake Erie, and a long list of disasters. The wind was from the South-west and moderate until the latter part of Saurday, when it increased to a gale, the barome-ter failing rapidly. During the night it blew with great violence, and towards murning it commenced enowing and snowed hard all day Sunday, blowing a perfect hurricane all the white. At times it lighted up a little, allowing some of the numerous vessels outside to get a glimpse at the light-house for a moment, and get in.— The schooner Sucepsiakes, with a cargo of wheat from this part, the Express reports ashore on the Canada
